

ALLIED FARMERS APPOINTS PAUL MACFIE AS GROUP CEO

NZX listed rural services and finance company Allied Farmers Limited today announced the appointment of Paul Macfie to the position of Group Chief Executive Officer. Paul replaces David Bale who recently announced that he was stepping down from the position.

Paul Macfie has an extensive background in the rural industries that spans over thirty years including senior management roles at Wrightson NMA, SouthFert, Allied Farmers and Williams & Kettle. In the last eighteen months he has worked for the NZX sharebroker McDouall Stuart focussing on investment banking transactions with a rural emphasis.

Allied Farmers Chairman John Loughlin said “we are delighted to have Paul rejoin us. He is an experienced and talented manager with a great track record in our sector”.

Paul Macfie will commence in the role on 12 November and will be based in Taranaki.
